

ONTARIO

KILLBEAR PARK INTERPRETIVE CENTRE

LOCATION

Killbear Provincial Park

COMPLETED

2008

ARCHITECT

HOK Architects

AREA

12,000 square feet

DESCRIPTION

The Killbear Park visitors' centre sits on a peninsula that juts from the rocky coastline of Georgian Bay. Built as part of a network of venues that commemorate the Great Lakes' natural, cultural, historic and recreational values, its provides programming space where visitors learn about ecology and stewardship. The building also houses exhibition areas, exterior viewing areas, a theatre, cafeteria, research offices, staff amenities and a reception lobby.

Photo credit: Tom Arban